THE Body of the late Queen of Portugal having lain two days in State in the Palace, the Funeral was performed on the 6th Inſtant in the manner following. Firſt marched two Regiments of Foot, their Officers cloathed in deep Mouring, and the Colours and Drums being covered with black Crape; Next came the Clergy of this City, each of them bearing a Wax-Candle in his hand; Then the Officers of the Crown on Horſes with black Trappings, attended by their Servants all in Mourning. Theſe were followed by the Clergy-men and Choir belonging to the Queens Chapel likewiſe on Horſeback, bearing Torches in their hands; After whom marched the Officers of the Queens Houſhold, the Chief of them on Horſeback. The Duke de Cadaval, Mordomo-Mor or High-Steward of the Queens Houſhold, came immediately before the Herſe in which was the Queens Body, on both ſides whereof were her Guards of Halbardiers in cloſe Mourning, carrying their Halbards with the Point downwards. In this Order they came to the Church of St. Vincent, where Maſs being ſaid by the Cardinal de Souſa, aſſiſted by ſeveral Biſhops, the Body was put into a Vault of the ſaid Church, the Principal Officers of the late Queen's Houſhold breaking their Staves (the Marks of their Offices) according to Cuſtom. Directions are given for making a very ſtately Tomb over the Place where the Queens Body lies.

Turin, Auguſt 30. The Count de Jerger, whom the Emperor ſent hither with the Character of his Envoy Extraordinary to make his Compliments to the Duke and Dutcheſs of Savoy on the Birth of the Prince of Piedmont, had his Audience of Leave of their Royal Highneſſes on the 23d Inſtant, and deſigns in few days to go back to Germany. The Duke and Dutcheſs of Savoy returned hither laſt night from their Houſe called the Venerie, where they have ſpent ſome time in taking the Diverſions of the Seaſon. The Regiment of Horſe called the Royal Piedmont, marched from hence this week to the Quarters aſſigned them in the Province of Mondovi.

Lemberg, Auguſt 27. The Commiſſioners appointed by the King of Poland to take Poſſeſſion of the Places which are to be reſtored to this Crown by the Port, purſuant to the Treaty of Carlowitz, are gone to Camieniec, from whence the Turks are removing their Artillery, Ammunition, and other Effects, in order to deliver that Place into their hands. One of the King's Saxon Regiments, and two Regiments of the Army of the Crown, are appointed to be in Garriſon there, and will be ordered to march towards that City, as ſoon as we receive Advice that the Turks are ready to evacuate it; after which the Commiſſioners of Poland are in like manner to receive from the Turkiſh Commiſſioners the other Fortreſſes in Podolia which are yielded to this Crown by the Peace, and to deliver up to them ſeveral Forts on the Confines of Moldavia which are to be reſtored to the Grand Signior; They are alſo to confer with the Turkiſh Commiſſioners about ſettling the Limits between the Dominions of Poland and the Ottoman Empire. The Saxon Regiments which are to continue in this Kingdom, and the greateſt part of the Forces of Poland, will be put into Winter-Quarters on the Frontiers of Ruſland.

Dantzick, Septemb. 9. Our Letters from Warſaw give an Account, that the Affair of Elbing is in a manner adjuſted, the Principal Matters in Diſpute betwixt the Crown of Poland and the Elector of Brandenburgh having been ſettled in ſeveral Conferences held for that purpoſe between the Chief Miniſters of Poland and the Baron Werner Reſident of Brandenburgh. This News is very acceptable here, this City being one of thoſe that would have been moſt expoſed to the Inconveniencies of the War, had the Difference between this Crown and the Elector of Brandenburgh been unfortunately widened to a Rupture. The particular Conditions of this Accommodation are not yet certainly known, but 'tis reported in general, That the Elector of Brandenburgh is to reſtore the Town of Elbing to the Polanders, and that they are to put ſome other Place into his hands till they have ſatisfied him as to his Pretenſions; for the ſettling of which, Commiſſioners from his Electoral Highneſs are daily expected at Warſaw, and the Biſhop of Cracow and the Palatine of Mariembourg are appointed to Treat with them, having Orders, as 'tis ſaid, to make ſome Demands on the part of the Republick of Poland, in conſideration of which they expect an Abatement of the Sums demanded by his Electoral Highneſs. They write likewiſe from Warſaw, that the Cardinal Primate has the Chief Management of all Publick Affairs in the King's Abſence; that the Crown General and the General of Lithuania were in Town, and that there were frequent Conferences between them and ſome other General Officers about ſettling the Quarters of the Army; And that Major-Gen. Carlowitz was going to Moſcow with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Poland, to negociate an Accommodation of the Differences between this
